		SECTION-A (READING)
1.		Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:
		At the edge of a quiet town stood an old stone bridge. Built many years ago, it connected the villagers to the nearby fields and markets. Its arches reflected beautifully in the flowing river beneath, especially during early mornings when mist hovered over the water. People crossed the bridge every day—farmers carrying baskets of vegetables, children walking to school and travellers heading to distant places. The bridge had endured heavy rains, strong winds and the passage of time, yet it remained firm and reliable. Though simple in design, the bridge symbolised connection, trust and perseverance. It silently served everyone without complaint, standing as a reminder that strength often lies in quiet endurance.
